Dear Friends,

We invite you join us on a wonderful spiritual journey to Paris and Rome to celebrate the life and spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

While Ignatius was born and raised in the Basque area of northern Spain, his educational formation was done largely in Paris. The bulk of his priestly ministry however was to be spent in Rome.

It is only fitting then that we start our journey in Paris, where Ignatius spent 10 years studying philosophy and theology at the University of Paris. It is here that he shared his Spiritual Exercises with his fellow students and companions, among whom were his roommates Francis Xavier and Peter Favre. In 1534, in a small church at Montmartre near Paris, they joined Ignatius and five other companions in consecrating their lives to service in the Church by personal vows. Thus was formed the initial brotherhood that would become the Society of Jesus.

In Rome, we will visit the rooms where Ignatius worked for almost 20 years as the founder and first Superior General of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) in Rome. It was here that he edited the Spiritual Exercises, wrote the Constitutions of the Society of Jesus, penned thousands of letters, and died in 1556.

While seeing the Vatican and the beautiful churches and monuments of Rome, we will learn of the work that Ignatius carried out at the heart of Catholic Christianity and the role played by the Jesuits when it became a significant factor in ecclesiastical politics. We will visit the Jesuits’ mother church of the Gesu and the church of Sant’ Ignazio, and other significant Jesuit institutions in the city. We will also learn more about the work of the Society of Jesus today.

Our trip follows the themes of adventure and story that was Ignatius’ life as we will travel to the places in Paris and Rome important to him and the Jesuits. The two Jesuits accompanying our journey will offer talks and materials on the life and spirituality of Ignatius. There will also be private time built into the trip to aid personal reflection, meditation and prayer. It is truly a spiritual journey.

Finding God in all things is one of the maxims of Ignatian spirituality. In this spirit, we will enrich our spiritual reflections and our visits to holy sites with opportunities to enjoy the cultural and wider spiritual offerings of these two grand cities. We experience the architectural wonders of these two great cities, to say nothing of the delicious French and Italian culinary and vintage treat. Savor each day with us in an unhurried, relaxed way as we follow in the footsteps of St. Ignatius.

We hope you will be able to join us on what truly promises to be the trip of a lifetime!

Our Daily Itinerary

MON, JUNE 13, DAY 1: ARRIVE PARIS: As we are each making our own travel arrangements to Paris, we look forward to gathering this evening for a welcome reception at our hotel followed by dinner. Passengers are invited to take a taxi to our centrally located hotel. (R, D)

TUES, JUNE 14, DAY 2: PARIS: PANORAMIC TOUR OF THE CITY, SORBONNE UNIVERSITY, LEFT BANK & LUXEMBOURG GARDENS: After a good night’s sleep and a buffet breakfast, we enjoy a panoramic orientation sightseeing tour of the city including the Champs Elysées, the Arc de Triomphe, and the Eiffel Tower built for the International Exhibition of Paris of 1889.

Next visit Sorbonne University built over the old Sorbonne, then called the University of Paris where beginning at the age of 38 Ignatius of Loyola studied, met and roomed with Francis Xavier and Peter Faber. At the age of 44, presumed to be too old and sick he was turned down for doctoral studies.

Next, we enjoy a walking tour of the famous Left Bank of Paris, the Paris of artists, writers, and philosophers, including Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, Jean-Paul Sartre, Ernest Hemingway, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Gertrude Stein and dozens of other members of the great artistic community.

We visit Church of Saint Severin, one of the oldest remaining churches in the Left Bank, important to him and the Jesuits. We will see the Pantheon and have time to stroll through the Luxembourg Gardens, surrounding the palace built for Marie de Medici. We return to our hotel for dinner at a nearby restaurant. (B, D)
WED, JUNE 15, DAY 3: PARIS: NOTRE DAME, ST. CHAPELLE & SACRE COEUR: After our buffet breakfast we begin our tour at the Cathedral of Notre Dame and the nearby Sainte-Chapelle (“Holy Chapel”). It was erected by Louis IX, King of France, to house precious relics. The most beautiful aspects of the chapel, and considered the best of their type in the world, are its stained glass and rose windows. After our visit here, we take some time for lunch on our own.

This afternoon we will visit the picturesque and charming district of Montmartre. Far more than just a district, this small village in the heart of the big city is an oasis that has kept its soul of long ago, and its bohemian spirit. On the morning of the 15th of August, 1534 at Montmartre, Loyola and his six companions, of whom only one was a priest, met and took upon themselves the solemn vows of their lifelong work. The mountain top is dominated by the Basilica of the Sacred Heart (Sacre Coeur).

Here we celebrate Mass.

After Mass and our visit of the Basilica, we walk the short distance to St. Pierre Church, the oldest surviving church in Paris. There will be time to stroll along the streets, admiring the work of the many artists following in the footsteps of Renoir, Cézanne and Toulouse-Lautrec. We gather for dinner tonight at a local restaurant. (B, D)

THU, JUNE 16, DAY 4: PARIS: MIRACULOUS MEDAL SHRINE OF ST. CATHERINE LABOURE & LEISURE: After breakfast this morning we visit the Shrine of St. Catherine Laboure, to whom was given the ‘Miraculous Medal.’ We also visit the nearby Vincentian mother-house, to see the St Vincent de Paul reliquary and to celebrate Mass. The balance of the day is at leisure to explore on your own. You might want to consider one of these options:

The Pompidou Centre with its daring architecture is the home of, among other things, the National Museum of Modern Art, a masterful and diverse collection of works from many modern schools.

The Musée National Picasso is situated in the heart of historic Paris, and has a collection of several thousand works of Pablo Picasso. Besides the personal collection of Picasso, the museum also has some works of Cézanne and Matisse.

The Musée d’Orsay, installed in the former Orsay railway station built for the Universal Exhibition of 1900. The building itself can be described as the museum’s first work of art. The museum houses multidisciplinary collections from 1848 to 1914.

The Rodin Museum opened in 1919 and features the works of French sculptor Auguste Rodin.

The Louvre Museum, one of the foremost collections of art on the globe!

Dinner tonight is on our own to explore the restaurant scene. (B)

FRI, JUNE 17, DAY 5: PARIS / ROME: ANCIENT SITES, ST. MARY MAJOR & ST. JOHN LATERAN: This morning after breakfast, we transfer to the Paris Airport for our included flight to Rome. We begin our visit of Rome by entering the Holy Door of the Papal Basilica of St. Mary Major, where we celebrate Mass. Here in the Chapel of the Manger Ignatius offered his first Mass. Pope Francis celebrated his first Mass as Pope in this Basilica.

St. Mary Major is one of the four Papal basilicas that have a Holy Door (Porta Sancta in Latin). The doors are normally sealed shut from the inside so that they cannot be opened. They are opened during a Jubilee year, when pilgrims enter through those doors to gain the plenary indulgence connected with the Jubilee.

After Mass we make our way to the Papal Basilica of St. John Lateran, this is actually the cathedral for the diocese of Rome. It is here that St. Francis persuaded Pope Innocent III to give permission to begin the Franciscan Order.

We take some time for lunch on our own, before enjoying a walk past the Roman Forum for our visit of the Coliseum. We check-in to our hotel for dinner and the evening. (B, D)

SAT, JUNE 18, DAY 6: ROME: EXCURSION TO LA STORTA & SANT’ ANDREA AL QUIRINALE: This morning, after breakfast, we board our motor coach for an excursion to La Storta, an important site for Ignatius. In November, 1537, Ignatius was traveling with Peter Faber and James Lainez towards Rome. Jesus appeared to him carrying his cross while from the Heavens, the Holy Father looked down, and Ignatius heard these confirming words, “I will be there for you in Rome.” We celebrate Mass in the chapel, commemorating these very words spoken to Ignatius.

We return to Rome for lunch on our own. This afternoon, we visit the Church of Sant’ Andrea al Quirinale, built on the site of the first Jesuit novitiate. Former students here include Sts. Stanislaus Kostka, Robert Southwell, and Aloysius Gonzaga. St. Robert Bellarmine died here on September 17, 1621. Dinner this evening is on our own. (B)

SUN, JUNE 19, DAY 7: ROME: IGNATIAN & JESUIT SITES: This morning, after breakfast, we begin our day dedicated to Ignatius of Loyola and the order he founded, the Society of Jesus.

We start with what are referred to as ‘The Rooms of Ignatius.’ The rooms represent the fifth and final residence of Ignatius in Rome. From his residence in the top floor of the building, Ignatius governed the worldwide Jesuit Order, and from here he penned his more than 7,000 letters on a wide range of topics.

Here Ignatius drew his last breath on July 31, 1556. He was canonized in 1622. He is buried in the nearby Church of the Gesù (Church of the Holy Name of Jesus), the Mother Church of the Society of Jesus. Marking a transition between Renaissance and Baroque styles, the Gesù became a model for Jesuit churches around the world. Here we celebrate Mass.

Next, we will visit the Church of San Ignazio. Constructed in pure Baroque style, the Church was completed a half-century after the Gesù. St. Aloysius Gonzaga and St. John Berchmans are both buried here. Interesting sidebar: As the funds were not available to build a dome on the church, Jesuit Andrea Pozzo cleverly painted a fake dome over the altar, offering the illusion of a real dome. You will have to study it closely to discover that the dome is not real.

This afternoon, after some time for lunch on our own, we visit the Gregorian University and Biblicum, founded by Ignatius Loyola over 450 years ago. With a small library connected to it, this school was once called the Collegio Romano. When the university counted more than a thousand pupils, Pope Gregory XIII commissioned a new, larger edifice. The Pope became known as “founder and father” of the university and from that point the school acquired the title of the “Gregorian University.”

Today the Gregorian University includes six faculties and four institutes and has about 3,000 students from more than 130 countries. Our visit will provide us with an opportunity to learn about one of the premier universities in Europe and, indeed, the world. We return to our hotel for the evening. Dinner tonight is at a local restaurant. (B, D)

MON, JUNE 20, DAY 8: ROME: ST. PETER’S & VATICAN MUSEUMS: After breakfast, we begin today with a private Mass at the Basilica of St. Peter. We will enter through St. Peter’s Holy Door. This “Holy Door” is also known as “Door of the Great Pardon.” Its panels portray scenes of man’s sin and his redemption through the mercy of God.

After Mass, our guide will take us on a tour of the Basilica. With Michelangelo’s dome, it is the most prominent building inside Vatican City. Built over the site of “Old Saint Peter’s” constructed by the Emperor Constantine in the fourth century, the new Basilica began construction in 1506.

The building absorbed the attention of twenty popes and ten architects before completion in 1626. There are over 100 tombs located within the Basilica. These include 91 popes. Here we see the Papal Altar covered with the sumptuous bronze baldachin by Bernini, and the apse, aglow with golden mosaic. In addition to many sculptures and monuments by Bernini and other great artists, we will see Michelangelo’s famous statue of The Pietà.

This afternoon we enjoy a tour of the Vatican Museums, whose treasures include the ancient Rome exhibits with the famous Laocoon statue, and the High Renaissance murals of Raphael, which he was painting at the same time Michelangelo completed the Sistine, another marvel. The restoration of its frescoes reveals startling bright colors - a new light on Michelangelo! The Sistine chapel was commissioned by Pope Sixtus IV to mark the Holy Year 1475. The balance of the day is at leisure to explore on our own. Dinner tonight is on our own. (B)

TUE, JUNE 21, DAY 9: ROME: JESUIT CURIA & TIVOLI: We begin our day at the Jesuit Curia for a visit and Mass (arranged by Fr. Ted). After Mass, we journey just outside of Rome, to the area once inhabited by the Roman elite. Our route takes us past the travertine quarries that have helped Tivoli economically since ancient times, as almost all of Rome is built of this stone.

Even today Tivoli ships travertine all over the world. Tivoli, called Tibur by the ancient Romans, is set on a cliff with a beautiful view of the Roman Campagna. Here we visit Rocca Pia, the 15th Century Fortress of Pope Paul III. Here, in 1539, the Pope gave his verbal approbation for the founding of the Society of Jesus. We take some time for lunch on our own before returning to our hotel for dinner and the evening. (B, D)

WED, JUNE 22, DAY 10: ROME: PAPAL AUDIENCE & HISTORIC WALKING TOUR: This morning, after breakfast, we make our way to Vatican City to attend the General Papal Audience with Pope Francis (subject to the Holy Father’s schedule).

After some time for lunch on our own, we meet a local guide who will lead us on a walking tour of historic central Rome, starting with the beautiful Spanish Steps. We continue with a visit to the Trevi Fountain, where we toss our traditional three coins into the fountain to make our three wishes - one for love - one for money - and one to return to Rome.

Our next stop is the Basilica of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva, housing the tomb of the St. Catherine of Siena. Along with St. Francis, St. Catherine is a co-patron of Italy. We also visit the Pantheon, originally built to honor all the gods of Ancient Rome as well as the church of San Luigi dei Francesci with its three stunning paintings by Caravaggio and the Piazza Navona, with its beautiful fountains. You may wish to stop in route for a gelato (an Italian ice cream) at the famous Giolitti’s! We return to our hotel. Dinner tonight is on our own. (B)

THU, JUNE 23, DAY 11: ROME: BASILICA OF ST. PAUL & CATACOMBS: Today, after breakfast, we make our way to the Catacombs of St. Calixtus housing many of the tombs of the early Popes. After our tour here we visit the nearby Basilica of St. Paul’s Outside the Walls, housing the Tomb of St. Paul the Apostle, affectionately known as the Apostle of the Gentiles. We enter through the Holy Door. The door panels are made in bronze. Starting from the top, they narrate the life of Christ from Christmas until Pentecost, followed by the images of the prophets and the apostles. This door, which is considered one of the most beautiful one of its kind, is credited to Theodore of Constantinople who lived in the XI century. Here we celebrate final Mass of our journey. After Mass, the balance of the day is at leisure. Tonight we gather for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D)

FRI, JUNE 24, DAY 12: RETURN TO THE USA: Breakfast is included today, and afterwards we bid a fond farewell to the Eternal City and to our travel mates as we all begin our independent departures homeward. (B)

Note: While no changes are anticipated, there may be unforeseen occasions when certain alterations become necessary to this itinerary, either due to changes in airline schedules or for other reasons.
